Customer Centric

Using my consultative and customer-centric approach, I empower and equip customers, clients & other team members to bring out the best value in the products & services I represent.

Proactive

When my team and I are working on a project I always look for and identify possible events that may need our attention in advance and to make sure that we address them.

Inquisitive

An Inquisitive Nature is Natural.
I adore seeking out and learning, whether it is a new hobby, a new way to do something or just to seek out other angles.

About Allain

A flexible and experienced customer orientated person with well developed time management skills.

I am a communicator and i have proven verbal, written and problem solving skills.

I thrive within a team as well as using my own initiative.

I am skilled at addressing challenges in a resourceful manner and negotiating with clients or suppliers to achieve beneficial outcomes.

Communication is more than being able to speak, I have confident, articulate, and professional speaking abilities and interpersonal skills that I use to communicate and facilitate discussions effectively.

Leadership I have learnt that leadership is less about managing a team and more about my ability to lead, motivate & stimulate others to achieve goals and inspire change and I enjoy sharing these skills.

Creativity Communication and creativity go hand-in-hand and both are a passion for me. I have strong conceptual skills and the ability to quickly develop creative solutions to visual communications problems.
